LEAD 102
Positional Leadership

MISSION STATEMENT

To empower and equip leaders to be sent and positioned for ministry in the inner cities around the world for the cause of the gospel.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course gives the student an in depth understanding on the principle of authority and honor from a godly perspective that will insure success in any arena of life. There are promises and protection granted only when we are properly submitted to the authority assigned to our lives that we will learn how to recognize and submit to.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course:

1. Students will understand how to position themselves for leadership.
2. Students will have demonstrated submission to authority.
3. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the principles of honor.
4. Students will understand the difference between Obedience and Submission: and how to identify which they are doing.

REQUIRED TEXTS

John Bevere. Undercover: the keys to living in God's provision and protection. (2018) Thomas Nelson Publisher

John Bevere. Undercover: the promise of protection under His authority, Workbook. (2007) Messenger International.

(Textbooks, workbooks, lab fees, etc. are a normal part of the cost of your education.) Photocopies of the pages will not be accepted for credit. This constitutes a breach of copyright law and drives up the cost of textbooks.

ASSIGNMENTS

Students are required to complete reading assignments on time and be prepared for class discussions and activities.

You will turn in your assignments through the portal each week by either submitting a picture of completed workbook page or typing it into the dialogue box.

Late Work

Late work will only be accepted under special circumstances and only with prior approval from the professor (see guidelines for absences). If late work is allowed, a late penalty of 10% will be applied for each day late.

Integrity

Leadership University upholds the highest of standards when it comes to development of classwork or an assignment. All work should be your own. Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in an immediate failure of the course.

1. If you did not write the words, they do not belong in your paper. You cannot COPY AND PASTE anything from a book, the internet or any other source and put it in your paper.
2. Do NOT include direct quotes unless the quote is cited properly and gives the author credit. Describe the material in your own words. Do not use words you do not understand.
3. You are free to consult with classmates about assignments, but please ensure that your work is your own. If your work looks too much like your classmates, plagiarism rules may be enforced.
