Leadership University
Theology 103- The Person & Works of Christ

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course gives the student an in depth understanding of the Divine nature and person of Christ as well as His atoning work on the cross. This course will also provide students with a deeper understanding of communion and they will receive practical training for taking intimate and corporate communion.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course:

1. Students will know the characteristics and functions of communion with Christ.
2. Students will demonstrate knowledge of leading others in taking communion.
3. Students will understand the doctrine and theology of who Christ is, what he has done, and what He is asking of them.
4. Students will dive deeper into the doctrines of Christ and the New Covenant, in order to strengthen their faith and that of others.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Wayne Grudem. Systematic Theology. Zondervan Publishing, 1994

(Textbooks, workbooks, lab fees, etc. are a normal part of the cost of your education.) Photocopies of the pages will not be accepted for credit. This constitutes a breach of copyright law and drives up the cost of textbooks. You will enter your book assignments into the portal each week for review.

REQUIREMENTS

Attendance

You are expected to attend each class. Class attendance ensures your learning the material in its entirety. Only one excused absence will be allowed, with a prior approval by the professor. Unexcused absences are not acceptable and may result in the loss of points and/or the inability to complete assigned work.

Student Work Standards

Late work will only be accepted under special circumstances and only with prior approval from the professor (see guidelines for absences). If late work is allowed, a late penalty of 10% will be applied for each day late.

Assignments

Students are required to complete reading assignments on time and be prepared for class discussions and activities. Students are required to complete all assignments on time, complete assigned reading and be prepared for class discussions and activities. All written assignments must be entered into the portal using the Homework link at the bottom of each corresponding lesson. Grades cannot be given to assignments that are not turned in through the portal.

Leadership University upholds the highest of standards when it comes to development of classwork or an assignment. All work should be your own. Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in an immediate failure of the course.

1. If you did not write the words, they do not belong in your paper. You cannot COPY AND PASTE anything from a book, the internet or any other source and put it in your paper.
2. Do NOT include direct quotes unless the quote is cited properly and gives the author credit. Describe the material in your own words. Do not use words you do not understand.
3. You are free to consult with classmates about assignments, but please ensure that your work is your own. If your work looks too much like your classmates, plagiarism rules may be enforced.
