Leadership University Leadership 105: Pastoral Leadership

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will develop the heart of a shepherd in every servant. Pastoring is as simple as caring & discipling others, and as complex as managing a mega church infrastructure, staff and congregation. We will take a deep look at the practical responsibilities of pastors in every level of ministry, in an effort to help students identify their pastoral responsibility and develop a greater respect for those that pastor over them.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course:

1. Students will understand the importance of basic Christian disciplines like prayer and cultivating character.
2. Students will be equipped for non pulpit roles like counseling and care of the congregation.
3. Students will learn how to lead through others and to hold the gifts and calling of others in esteem, so they can be effective in the lives of others.
4. Students will be able to resolve conflicts internally and externally according to biblical models.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Earley, Dave. Pastoral Leadership is...How to shepherd God's people with passion and confidence, B & H publishing group, 2012.

(It should be understood that: textbooks, workbooks, class supplies etc. are a normal part of the cost of your education.) Photocopies of the pages will not be accepted for credit. This constitutes a breach of copyright law and drives up the cost of textbooks.

REQUIREMENTS

Attendance

You are expected to attend each class. Class attendance ensures your learning the material in its entirety. Only one excused absence will be allowed, with a prior approval by the professor.

Unexcused absences are not acceptable and will result in the loss of points for that class period. Please submit Dr.'s notes and written excuses for absences to leadershipuniversity@twwwo.org

Late Work

Late work will only be accepted under special circumstances and only with prior approval from the instructor. If late work is allowed, a late penalty of 10% will be applied for each class day late.

Coursework Integrity

Leadership University upholds the highest of standards when it comes to development of classwork or an assignment. All work should be your own. Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in an immediate failure of the course.

1. If you did not write the words, they do not belong in your paper. You cannot COPY AND PASTE anything from a book, the internet or any other source and put it in your paper.
2. Do NOT include direct quotes unless the quote is cited properly and gives the author credit. Describe the material in your own words. Do not use words you do not understand.
3. You are free to consult with classmates about assignments, but please ensure that your work is your own. If your work looks too much like your classmates, plagiarism rules may be enforced.

ASSIGNMENTS

- Students are required to complete reading assignments on time and be prepared for class discussions and activities.
- You will submit your assignments through the portal homework link for that assignment each week for review & grading before the start of the class period. If assignments are turned in, after the T.A.'s have checked coursework submissions in the portal, they may be marked late.
- Mandatory study hall days will equip students to submit coursework, understand and follow their syllabus, as well as complete required tests in the Leadership University portal. For additional help in utilizing the LU portal please refer to FAQ page for video tutorials, and or text your name and concern to I.T. at : 951- 878 - 8959
