Leadership University
Theology 105:
Inner Healing & Deliverance

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will teach students the process & function of the doctrines of inner healing and deliverance according to scripture. Bible text will be extrapolated to confirm today's use of these power gifts in the Church. Both theological and practical education for the activation and operation of these gifts/ministries will be explained and experienced with understanding by students in this course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course:

1. Students will learn what the ministry of inner healing is and how to identify someone's need for ministry in this area.
2. Students will understand basic doctrine of deliverance.
3. Students will understand how to recognize and close open doors in someone's life to the demonic.
4. Students will understand how to maintain spiritual health and purity after receiving the ministry of inner healing and deliverance.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Inner Healing and Deliverance. Maldonado, Guillermo. 5th edition 2007, ERJ Publications (Textbooks, workbooks, lab fees, etc. are a normal part of the cost of your education.) Photocopies of the pages will not be accepted for credit. This constitutes a breach of copyright law and drives up the cost of textbooks. You will hand in your book assignments to the instructor each week for review.

REQUIREMENTS

Attendance

You are expected to attend each class. Class attendance ensures your learning the material in its entirety. Only one excused absence will be allowed, with a prior approval by the professor. Unexcused absences are not acceptable and will result in the loss of points for that class period.

Late Work

Late work will only be accepted under special circumstances and only with prior approval from the professor (see guidelines for absences). If late work is allowed, a late penalty of 10% will be applied for each day late.

Leadership University upholds the highest of standards when it comes to development of classwork or an assignment. All work should be your own. Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in an immediate failure of the course.

1. If you did not write the words, they do not belong in your paper. You cannot COPY AND PASTE anything from a book, the internet or any other source and put it in your paper.
2. Do NOT include direct quotes unless the quote is cited properly and gives the author credit. Describe the material in your own words. Do not use words you do not understand.
3. You are free to consult with classmates about assignments, but please ensure that your work is your own. If your work looks too much like your classmates, plagiarism rules may be enforced.

ASSIGNMENTS

Students are required to complete reading assignments on time and be prepared for class discussions and activities.

All assignments should be uploaded in portal through designated homework link. Please direct submission issues to your TA first and then to I.T. department by texting 951-878-8958.
