LEAD 102

Positional Leadership

MISSION STATEMENT

To empower and equip leaders to be sent and positioned for ministry in the inner cities around the world for the cause of the gospel.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course gives the student an in-depth understanding on the principle of authority and honor from a godly perspective that will ensure success in any arena of life. There are promises and protection granted only when we are properly submitted to the authority assigned to our lives that we will learn how to recognize and submit to.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course:

1. Students will understand how to position themselves for leadership.
2. Students will have demonstrated submission to authority.
3. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the principles of honor.
4. Students will understand the difference between Obedience and Submission: and how to identify which they are doing

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Textbook

Textbooks are mandatory for lecture and homework purposes. The following book is needed for successful completion of this course:

Undercover: the keys to living in God's provision and protection. (2018) Thomas Nelson Publisher. John Bevere.

(Textbooks, workbooks, lab fees, etc. are a normal part of the cost of your education.) Photocopies of the pages will not be accepted for credit. This constitutes a breach of copyright law and drives up the cost of textbooks. You will enter your book assignments into the portal each week for review.

Portal Access and Usage

All TWLU classes require students to have digital access to our portal during lecture times and in order to complete all course content and assignments. The portal also gives online students the ability to access the live stream lectures (which are in real time and cannot be retrieved at a later time).

Attendance

You are expected to attend each class. Class attendance ensures you learn the material in its entirety. Only one excused absence will be allowed, with prior approval by the instructor. Unexcused absences are not acceptable, resulting in the loss of quiz points and inability to complete assigned work. Students are encouraged to discuss missed days with their TA to determine if an alternate option is available to obtain instruction necessary for course success.

Assignments

Students are required to complete reading assignments on time and be prepared for class discussions and activities. Students are required to complete all assignments on time, complete assigned reading and be prepared for class discussions and activities. All assignments must be entered into the portal using the Homework link at the bottom of each corresponding lesson. Grades cannot be given to assignments that are not turned in through the portal.

Coursework

1. Homework: is assigned weekly and can be found on the last page of the course syllabus. Homework is due one week after assigned and must be submitted before the following class period using the appropriate assignment link in the portal (see Late Work policy).
2. Quizzes: a mandatory closed book quiz on lecture material is required at the end of lecture completion. This standard is held by an honor system. Quizzes are to be completed immediately following the lecture within the 10-minute time limit provided.
3. Midterms: are a take home assignment that may be done open book. Each midterm must be completed once the test has started (it has a time constraint). Please do not save and try to return it because it must be completed the same day it is opened, otherwise the system will automatically submit it. (Midterms are not required in pre-requisite classes).
4. Finals: must be done in person and are closed book. Only physical Bibles are permitted in test taking area. Please bring an acceptable device to class to access your account on test taking days and any necessary batteries or cords.

Late Work

Late work without penalty will only be accepted under special circumstances and only with prior approval from the TA or Student Success (see guidelines for absences). The late work penalty is 10% per week. Homework assigned prior to midterms will not be accepted after the midterm exam due date. Absolutely no homework will be accepted after the last day of class.

Student Conduct

Leadership University upholds the highest of standards when it comes to development of classwork and assignments. All work should be your own.

- Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in an immediate failure of the course. If you did not write the words, they do not belong in your paper. You cannot COPY AND PASTE anything from a book, the internet or any other source and put it in your paper.
- Do NOT include direct quotes unless the quote is cited properly and gives the author credit. Describe the material in your own words. Do not use words you do not understand.
- You are free to consult with classmates about assignments, but please ensure that your work is your own. If your work looks too much like your classmates, plagiarism rules may be enforced.

*The course lecture schedule will be adjusted and developed as the course unfolds. However, the book exercises—and all other assignments—will continue to be due on the dates identified in the schedule below.
