Systematic Theology 104

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will teach students how to study what the Bible teaches us today on the doctrine of Redemption. Students will learn to establish clear biblical theology in accord with doctrine and beliefs in specific topics within scripture and how to personally apply these topics to their lives. Students will study doctrine that is foundational to our faith and provides understanding to our calling, faith, repentance, and sanctification.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course:

1. Students will know how to study the word of God systematically.
2. Students will understand basic doctrine of conversion.
3. Students will understand basic doctrine of sanctification.
4. Students will understand basic doctrine of death and glorification.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Grudem, Wayne. Systematic Theology: An Introduction to Biblical Doctrine. Zondervan, 1994.
(Textbooks, workbooks, lab fees, etc. are a normal part of the cost of your education.) Photocopies of the pages will not be accepted for credit. This constitutes a breach of copyright law and drives up the cost of textbooks. You will hand in your book assignments to the instructor each week for review.

REQUIREMENTS

Attendance

You are expected to attend each class. Class attendance ensures your learning the material in its entirety. Only one excused absence will be allowed, with a prior approval by the professor. Unexcused absences are not acceptable and will result in the loss of points for that class period.

Late Work

Late work will only be accepted under special circumstances and only with prior approval from the professor (see guidelines for absences). If late work is allowed, a late penalty of 10% will be applied for each day late.

ASSIGNMENTS

Students are required to complete reading assignments on time and be prepared for class discussions and activities. Students are required to complete all assignments on time, complete assigned reading and be prepared for class discussions and activities. All written assignments must be entered into the portal using the Homework link at the bottom of each corresponding lesson. Grades cannot be given to assignments that are not turned in through the portal.

Leadership University upholds the highest of standards when it comes to development of classwork or an assignment. All work should be your own. Plagiarism is unacceptable and will result in an immediate failure of the course.

1. If you did not write the words, they do not belong in your paper. You cannot COPY AND PASTE anything from a book, the internet or any other source and put it in your paper.
2. Do NOT include direct quotes unless the quote is cited properly and gives the author credit. Describe the material in your own words. Do not use words you do not understand.
3. You are free to consult with classmates about assignments, but please ensure that your work is your own. If your work looks too much like your classmates, plagiarism rules may be enforced.
