Theology HW week 4 Where the enemy creates wounds pt. 2

From the 4 areas of wounds discussed I have received healing and freedom In unforgiveness, Anger and rejection. I grew up in an abusive home always hearing
I was dumb and how ugly i was. At a very early age I grew to be very angry and putting walls Up, not letting people get too close to me. But coming to the way and taking all the discipleship classes I did, I started to identify the person that was behind it all, and I learned how much Jesus loves me. I received freedom when I forgave my abusers.
