

What now? pg.264

yes. I have enjoyed the benefits of good christian community. I'm currently involved in a small group that we call the power of 12. We meet weekly every Friday. I also have a power of 12 that I lead every Thursday, I can shift my church by staying consistent. To better equip my small group I believe I need to make prayer my number one priority along with the word.