

In class we were able to receive prayer for inner healing and deliverance. This experience hit me like a ton of bricks because even in my faith now, which is stronger than it has ever been, and feeling only truly saved in my life now like I never did before, I still struggle daily. But what I do have now is wisdom from God to know that I am given grace and that I'm worthy of being forgiven, and that he has equipped me with the tools to conquer. Anyway, before class I was feeling very down, wrongfully blaming it on my hormones from this pregnancy, wrongfully allowing my baby to possibly feel as if I'm blaming them. This prayer is something I so needed. I felt like a weight had been lifted off of me and was so happy to be able to bring this mom home to my children and partner. I feel renewed. And have been so grateful for receiving and learning for myself how to declare victory for myself and my family. I'm so grateful to have been equipped with the weapon of love and prayer to continue declaring healing and deliverance in myself and my family.
