

THE BAIT OF SATAN DEVOTIONAL STUDY GUIDE

Recall a recent time when you asked someone to forgive you. Briefly indicate the approach you used with them. Circle anything prideful that you said or did.

I have told my daughter I was so sorry for her situation -

I had to be very careful because I had worried her and did not want it to be told you so.

Humbling ourselves will promote reconciliation. Pride defends, but humility agrees and says, "You are right. I have acted this way. Please forgive me."

Read James 3:17 and rewrite it in your own words.

In order to walk in the wisdom of God check your heart that its pure seeking peace, be humble full of mercy and let justice be impatient and serene

Godly wisdom is having a willingness to yield. Godly wisdom is not stiff-necked or stubborn when it comes to personal conflicts. A person submitted to godly wisdom is not afraid to yield or defer to the other person's viewpoint as long as it does not violate truth.

WRITE A PRAYER...

Asking God to reveal offenses in your heart and to give you wisdom to approach those you have offended.

How please reveal any areas in my heart that may be harboring offense and provide wisdom as an opportunity to reconcile and have peace

