

The next step I need to take personally in order to resist offense with people is spend time with the Lord and let Him reveal and guide

One person I need to immediately ask for forgiveness is currently I am in a place of place with those around me

One reason I need to keep a spiritual journal is to let God reveal what is in my heart

In regard to offenses, I need to pray daily that my heart remains right and that I am able to view circumstances thru other perspectives

When you know that your heart has been cleansed of past offenses and is strong and settled, stand firm and resist Satan's bait in the future. Read about the whole armor of God in Ephesians 6:10-18. You will be an overcomer and will defeat the enemy!

WRITE A PRAYER...

Thanking God for the specific protection He gives with each piece of spiritual armor He has provided for you.

Thank you Lord for the instruction in this book that helps me against the unknown attacks of the enemy and the tools to resist and conquer
