

NPCC 303 Lesson 9 Homework

Homework: Read Ch. 11

Identify a grant that your fictitious non-profit could apply for and prepare ...

Nerci Garcia

11/5/22

A grant that a nonprofit LLC can apply for is High Priority Grant. This grant can deliver a high amount of funds needed to start the company going.

The grant is up to Two Million dollars. Once the Board begins applying for the grant the writer needs to write the justification and make sure it is part of the rules and constitution.

Do the research and follow the guidelines, to project a summary prepare an introduction of the general description of the company, this will target the populations, timeline, and show the effects it will impact the community or how it will impact the community.

The writer must make sure to bring attention to the reader. The writer needs to share the success story to demonstrate why this funding should be suited for the company.

By doing this will reach out to as many as possible to make this grant happen in order to receive the funding for the new project that will benefit many across the nation.