

The Small Group Leader's Personal Dream of Group Health, Growth, and Multiplication

Pray right now about your dream as a small group leader.

Write out your dream in your own words and/or use the statements below.

- I have the dream of leading a healthy, growing, multiplying small group.
- I will learn the habits needed to make this dream come true.
- By God's grace, I will live the habits needed to make this dream come true.

I have a vision of a chain of men coming together in unity lead by myself
I see this small group launching out!

Sign and date this commitment.

Name: Daniel Miller

Date: Sept 30 2013

Read the statement of your dream regularly and make it an ongoing focus for prayer, learning, and effort.

If you are already leading a small group, dream of the best strategy and date for multiplying your group. Discuss it with your overseer. Write it below.

Dream is growing & persevering through every season

Plan various ways that you can continually share the dream of being a healthy, growing, multiplying group with your group.

Publicly sharing vision with leaders and followers

Plan various ways to regularly share the date and method for multiplying with your group members.

Virtual or in person around pool/pastors