

Day 11

There was a time I had to miss church Sunday, my first time missing, I felt peace. I had to go visit my dad that day.

Suffering and obedience, we have to endure suffering and be obedient. I always talk to Jesus to help me be more like him.

When I suffer, I respond thankful because I know that I have victory. It's just a moment I have to endure suffering to make me stronger.

When I must obey, my attitude is kicking and screaming but I know that is something I have to work on. To be willing and God will see my obedience.

Prayer:

Father, I surrender all obedience to you. Use me as a vessel to endure suffering and do your work father. Jesus strengthen me in all ways I struggle.

Day 12

Mathew 7:1-5

Do not judge and we won't be judged. How can we judge other faults when we have our own.

Mathew 5:21-26

We must make peace with people who we hurt or hurt us. Pray blessings instead of hatred or we will be judged.

Luke 6:36-37

Compassion towards each other. Do not judge so we won't be judged. Forgive so our father can forgive us.

Romans 2:1-2

When we condemn others we are also condemning ourselves. We are no better than others.

Romans 12:17-21

Do not repay evil with more evil instead love so that they can see we are honorable.

Romans 14:10-13

Why condemn another believer. Help them and do not cause their downfall, remember we all will go before our father to face judgement.

James 4:11-12

Obedying God's law, do not judge we have no right to do so.

Prayer:

Father give me strength to face offenses and not run from them. Help me lord to work on myself and reveal to me all unclean things.

Day 14

Love others and forgive so that we may be forgiven. Holding onto hurt had an outcome i was blocking my blessings

Money (doesn't bring me happiness)

Success (does not define who i am)

Possessions (does not make me whole)

Prayer:

Holy Spirit reveal to me god's word. Help me guide me to build my life upon the rock of christ.

Day 15

The lust of the flesh (already shaken)

The lust of the eyes(needs to be shaken)

The pride of life (already shaken)

To bring your life closer to its foundation

To remove what is dead, such as pride, from your life

To awaken a dormant area of your spiritual life
