

Desiree Chavez

Leadership 105 HW 7

What Now?

As Christians, it is important that we do not allow our friendships or relationships with family to wither away because of disagreements. We are to follow the example of our Father in Heaven and actively pursue genuine peace and reconciliation. We must be the peacemakers and the examples. We also must train our children as well as the people we are shepherding to resolve conflict and how to do so. We must take action, make it private, and be sensitive. We must go to the offender directly and not to a third party for this could deepen the resentment. We must be sensitive and approach the offender like how we would like to be approached and finally we must seek reconciliation.