

Do Not Lose Heart

Today I'd like to share a little bit about myself. Some of you may know that I am a graduate of our women's home. Now when I started Leadership University I had only been there a couple months, almost 6 to be exact, which means I had NO income. I did not know how I would get the finances to cover the start-up and honestly I didn't have a plan on how to pay for the tuition. I find myself in a similar situation now because due to this pandemic I am one of the many who lost their income. I found myself thinking that maybe I can just finish this at another time.

So as the Holy Spirit does he reminded me of a portion of scripture that about a year ago became my rock on which to stand.

2 Corinthians 4:16-17 says Do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. 17 For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.

Just like nature we all go through different seasons in our lives. Sometimes without realizing it we can be experiencing more than one at a time because.. Well.. that's life.

Today I ask you, What season or seasons do you find yourself in?

because

No matter what a situation looks like on the surface God CAN turn it around!

God IS greater than our momentary troubles

Nothing is impossible for God

We are the ones who put limits on what God can do

We Need to Expect the Unexpected!

We Must Change Our Perspective

2 Corinthians 4:18 tells us to fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

This made me think back to how it all started.

You see just like last year God has it covered. Last year from one of those unexpected sources God provided a way for me to be able to start this journey. The money cleared my account on a Friday and that Sunday last January was my first orientation.

I have been living in God's provision (on the daily) and what God started HE WILL FINISH.

I don't know how or where the finances for me to finish will come from and that is OKAY I don't need to because I know the WHO! > > I don't just trust and believe that it is on its way. I KNOW it is!

You see every single battle we have faced have brought us to this day.

They had a reason, and they had a purpose because without those victories we would NOT have gained authority over those areas.

God Is Not Done Yet.. The Story Written Is Still Being Laid Out In Front Of Us

God knew each and every one of us while we were still being formed in our mother's womb. Every moment of our life was recorded before a single day had passed.
